IRENE BROCKWELL

National and International Floral Judge, Demonstrator and Educator

Irene Brockwell's career as a renowned floral designer has flourished and evolved since the day she began – her innovative and contemporary approach shows that this evolution still continues after five (5) decades in the flower industry. Originally from Paisley, Scotland, Irene packed her design skills when she relocated to Brisbane, Australia in 1982 where she has built a solid career in floral design.

She has won numerous awards throughout her career both in Scotland and Australia, and believes wholeheartedly that participating in competitive floristry contributed significantly to the development of her technical skills.

Irene veered from her original path in retail floristry and was an educator at the Southbank Institute of Technology for 10 years teaching the next generation of florists.

Irene has always had a healthy calendar of workshops, demonstrations, judging and freelance design opportunities that gave her occasion to share her skills with others.

Her work is still featured in "Fusion Flowers" magazine and "International Floral Art Annual".
